

All Saints Literacy Center

info@allsaintsliteracy.org | (313) 635-4549

Updated: 29 March 2023

Introduction

Mission

All Saints Literacy Center enables adult learners to meet the challenges of today by improving their reading, writing, math and English speaking skills. Qualified tutors provide an individualized learning plan tailored to the goals and objectives of the learner in a welcoming environment.

Adrian Dominican Sisters

All Saints Literacy Center is one of seven Sponsored Institutions of the Adrian Dominican Sisters. Recognizing the need for adult literacy services in Southwest Detroit, Sister Mary Hemmen, OP, established the Center as a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization and opened its doors, with Roger Frank, in July of 2015. Since then, All Saints Literacy Center has welcomed over 200 learners and over 100 volunteer tutors.

How I got involved with All Saints Literacy Center

Why does literacy matter?

1 in 5

adults in the United States read below the sixth grade level.

1 in 3

adults in Michigan read below the sixth grade level.

70%

of America's inmates cannot read above a 4th grade level.

$70M

is the direct annual cost to the US healthcare industry due to low literacy rates.

$2.2T

is the estimated cost to the US economy due to low levels of literacy.

Some of the goals of our learners:

- Improve job skills
- Get a promotion at work
- Take the GED exam
- Read to their children
- Communicate with teachers
- Write a book in English
- Pass the US citizenship exam
- Complete required forms
- Read doctor's instructions
- Obtain a driver's license

It takes two...

Volunteer Tutors + Adult Learners

Synchronous one-to-one tutoring

Commitment:

Two hours

One time per week

Orientation:

Two hours

Discussion and paperwork

Training introduction

Training & Support:

Virtual training program

Workshops throughout the year

How to get involved:

1. Volunteer to tutor
2. Join our mailing list and share with a friend
3. Buy a sticker, tshirt, tank top, or hoodie
4. Make a donation!

Call or text:

(313) 635-4549

Email:

Info@AllSaintsLiteracy.org